

Academic Skills Centre

New or Modified Course

Course title	LSDU Demystifying the University System
Target participants	Students new to university study
Course aims	Assist students gain an insight into the university culture.
Learning outcomes	By the end of the session, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Effectively transition into university study and understand academic style and writing conventions.
Course description	A session designed to help students gain an insight into the university culture. It covers note-taking, goal-setting, and effective study strategies. Most importantly, it demystifies academic conventions and writing styles, providing 'inside knowledge' to help students make a smooth transition to university and academic success
Learning Advisor(s)	Jacqueline Tither
Number and length of sessions	One 50-minute session
Day(s) and dates	Several sessions are offered on various days and dates
How is the course delivered?	Seminar/workshop
Any specific equipment, text, handouts or prerequisite?	Data projector, laptop, document camera and ASC handouts.