

Academic Skills Centre

New or Modified Course

Course title	LSSC Speaking and Listening for English Language Learners
Target participants	Students with English as an additional language (undergraduate and postgraduate)
Course aims	To develop students' speaking and listening skills in a supportive environment.
Workshop outcomes	During the workshops students will: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• practise their speaking skills (conversation, discussion, expressing opinions, asking and answering questions)• practise their listening skills (during presentations, in conversation and discussion)• interact with other UC students and staff, both native and non-native speakers• develop their understanding of the support available to them as ESOL students at UC
Course description	These 50-minute workshops are designed to help students with English as an additional language to improve their speaking and listening skills. Topics covered in the workshops include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• participating in discussions• asking questions• responding to questions• defending a point of view• general conversation• listening in lectures Workshop participants will have the opportunity to speak with students who are native English speakers as well as other non-native English-speaking students.
Learning Advisor(s)	Jessica Ritchie
Number and length of sessions	50-minute sessions, one or more times per term.
Day(s) and dates
How is the course delivered?	Workshops
Any specific equipment, text, handouts or prerequisite?

---------------	--